THE ENGINEERING GROUPE CLEANS UP CATON HILL ROAD
EMPLOYEES AND FAMILY MEMBERS PARTICIPATE IN ADOPT-A-HIGHWAY

Woodbridge, VA —The Engineering Groupe’s team of volunteers completed another effort of cleaning up trash along Caton Hill Road Woodbridge, VA. The Engineering Groupe has committed to clean up of Caton Hill Road four times a year in partnership through the Virginia Department of Transportation (VDOT) Adopt-A-Highway Clean-up program.

This program promotes clean roads throughout the Commonwealth and allows employees, family and friends to contribute to keeping them debris-free. VDOT provides highway signs that recognize the organization or group of volunteers. On both ends of Caton Hill Road, signs are displayed with The Engineering Groupe company name.

“The Engineering Groupe wants to give back to the community and make a difference,” said John S. “Skip” Groupe, IV, President of The Engineering Groupe, Inc. “Adopt-A-Highway is an opportunity to keep trash off Caton Hill Road and promote a cleaner environment.”

The team of volunteers was Denar Antelo, Elena Antelo, Joyce Lupia, Steve Paska, Bob Polins, Yani Quan, Melissa and Lauren Taliaferro. The next volunteer efforts will take place on Saturday, July 14.
